Silence is golden.
1 minute to write a content-related phrase, summary, question, opinion, comment, action plan,...

Peach and Coconut

she'll be 'right

informative in every direction

Correct behavior

Discuss possible strategies when dealing with conflict

Open discussion and no treatment. Give everyone a chance to talk their turn

Think what kind of solutions to have and what are the pros, where everybody wouldn agree meet.

Make in a funny way once that the topic could be and I might be a little more strict but it is to a witness

Sharing of opinions for each topic to have a common coordinatn as a solution

No space for arrogance ar top-down orders

stress environment wont make it better, calm approach, openly discuss the problem

NEOCORTEX
THE KNOWER

LIMBIC SYSTEM
THE FEELER

REPTILIAN COMPLEX
THE CORE

Challenge

What are your main takeaways about your own culture?

Work-Life Integration

Small talk is the key

Talk a lot about yourself before you come to the point

Optimists

Equality and informality

What are your main takeaways about the Australian culture

What's your purpose for being in this class?
What are your objectives?
What would you like to learn?

Inhowfar were your points fulfilled?

Phalkun

1. Understanding AU/local business interaction habits
2. Seperation between work and life / work-life-balance
3. How AU deals with multiculture / ethics

Matthias

1. How not to offend AU
2. Saying politely "No"
3. Understand the client's culture & mentality

Kevin

1. How to lead AU people the best? Directive or collaborative?
2. How important is small talk and socialising with AU colleagues?
3. Are there any cultural taboos or humour styles that might be misunderstood by Europeans?

Patrick

1. When there is more time pressure to finish the work. How can I approach correctly?
2. What motivates AU people
3. When you are as a foreign person in charge, but the AU people don't like it. What would be the best way to loosen things up or make it also comfortable for them?

Jerome

1. To know the limitations of humor/jokes.
2. Usual terminologies when dealing with the local conversations
3.

Oliver

1. Understand AU business communication
2. Get to know culture
3. how to act with AU clients with no's or ciritcial topics

Philipp

1. Understending how to work with diffrent cultures
2. Whats diffrent between working environment between Austria and Australia
3. Get to know about the Australian culture

How to say no without saying no

- "Yeah nah" - a very Australian way to say no.
- “maybe,” “a bit,” “I'm not sure”
- "Sure" - said in a doubtful tone
- “I see where you're coming from — maybe we can revisit that next week?”
- “That's an interesting suggestion. I wonder if we could approach it differently?”
- Use questions instead of statements

ROSE COLLEGE
SPRACHEN & TRAINING